

THE LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

VOLUME XXI.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1865.

NUMBER 321.

1865. SPRING. 1865.
MILLINERY

MRS. A. E. PORTER

WE HAVE BEEN SELLING THE ABOVE
OF THE LARGEST STOCK OF MILLINERY GOODS ever brought to this market, consisting of DAVIS, GIBSONS, PLAT-FORM, HAT, CLOTH, LACE, TRIMMINGS, ETC.
Also a large stock of LADIES' CAPI-TALS, HATS, HABERDASHERY, & a large assortment of MOURNING VALES and CULLALAS.
Prompt attention paid to all orders at 331 Market st., bet. Third and Fourth.
mto dina

MOWER & REAPER

WE HAVE BEEN SELLING THE ABOVE
OF THE LARGEST STOCK OF
MILLINERY GOODS ever brought to this market, consisting of DAVIS, GIBSONS, PLAT-FORM, HAT, CLOTH, LACE, TRIMMINGS, ETC.
Also a large stock of LADIES' CAPI-TALS, HATS, HABERDASHERY, & a large
assortment of MOURNING VALES and CULLALAS.
Prompt attention paid to all orders at 331 Market st., bet. Third and Fourth.
mto dina

Daily Democrat.

TERMS OF THE DAILY DEMOCRAT
TO THE COUNTRY.

ONE YEAR.....$10.00
SIX MONTHS.....$8.00
ONE MONTH.....$1.00

To our Country Patrons.
Please to register your letters containing remittances, so that we may be responsible for all losses or when letters are registered. We are not responsible for losses in the mail, should they occur.

PROMPT ATTENTION PAID TO ALL ORDERS.

AUGUST ELECTION.
FOR STATE TREASURER.

JAMES H. GARRARD,
OF CLAY COUNTY.

PROSPECTUS.

The Louisville Democrat now appears in a new dress, which was much needed, Our readers know well the course of the Democrat to need any information on that subject.

July next the Democrat will be twenty-one years of age; and many have read it all that time. They have sometimes differed with us. It would be strange if we and they had been always right during that time, and strange if we had not both been sometimes wrong.
We are, therefore, relieved from the necessity of making promises for the future.

We still hold that Constitutions and laws are sacred things; that there can be no liberty without them. We hold that our Federal Constitution is binding in war as it is in peace; that it is even more important to observe it scrupulously than at other times; that the Federal Government is a chartered institution, with no power outside of its charter.

We were told that this was the best Government in the world, and we believe it. We are, therefore, opposed to all changes. Our Government as it was formed, administered and understood in generations past, is good enough for us.
We protest against the supremacy of the military in the civil power in States or in the United States. It reverses the whole theory of our Government.

We hold that the people of the States have a right to manage their own domestic affairs in their own way, and that they ought to keep that right, without any interference by people outside of the States, whether through the agency of the Federal Government, or any other power. We are, therefore, opposed to this amendment to the Constitution.

We have not lost faith in the people of the United States. Let us have free speech, a free press, and free elections, and the people of the United States will rectify all wrong in a lawful way. If it unhealthily should prove true that the people of the United States cannot support the cardinal doctrines of Free Government, it is idle to resort to secret plottings, conspiracies and rebellions to save them—they are not worth saving.

We don't think we shall change our opinions on these subjects at all, notwithstanding the tumbling of monarchs and the "music of events." The wisdom of ages is a better guide than these odd visions and sounds; and we shall not sit what we are told will happen, whether we aid it or not.
We do not feel bound to sanction a wrong because it will be done.

We intend to make the Democratic acceptable to all who are not wedded to their peculiar Abolition doctrines—to all who are for law and order against fraud and force.

The terms of our paper are as follows:

Daily Democrat One Month.....$1.00
Daily Democrat Six Months.....$6.00 Daily Democrat One Year.....$10.00

The rates of the Weekly Democrat will be, hereafter, for Single Subscriptions.....$1.50 Club of Ten.....$10.00 Club of Twenty.....$20.00 payable always in advance.

"But you haven't paid me for them," said the confused vendor.

"An' didn't I give you the eggs for the rum?" said Pat, triumphantly.

Kentucky, defrauded by a bold trick, got about as much respect and obedience to her laws as Mrs.
Maloney got money for her rum. "It's a breach of the law," says the State.

"The law is not enforced," says the General.

"But it is you who prevent its enforcement," replies confused Pat.

"As you thereby confess that your laws are practically unenforced, how can you ensure me for not yielding that obedience to them you do not exert from your own citizens?" answers the triumphant General. There is logic—the logic of events, so rolled upon by the heraldic of this State.

We do not know what steps have been or are to be taken in view of this extraordinary step, and the "music of events."
Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more probable that a hundred of them will be guilty of any such thing. What others have testified amounts to nothing. After a while justice will be done. In the meantime, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of these charges, and in their action cast no reflections on the conduct of Judge Bullitt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

Not a word of proof is adduced, except
what two detectives say. It is much more
probable that a hundred of them will be
guilty of any such thing. What others
have testified amounts to nothing. After
a while justice will be done. In the mean-
time, we ought to bear it in mind that the Legislature never investigated any of
these charges, and in their action cast no
reflections on the conduct of Judge Bul-
litt.

THE UNION PRESS contains an attack
on J. F. Bulitt, in which it charges him
with the most gigantic intentions of crime.

